

Film Locations on the Dingle Peninsula

Welcome to the Dingle Peninsula, a landscape that is truly magnificent, inspirational, spiritual and humbling.

It is a place where the language and culture of these coastal villages and town, have been custodians of great heritage, literature and hospitality. It is a place to come, stay and immerse yourself in somewhere very special.....

This is the land that inspired Film Directors David Lean, Ron Howard and Studio Giants - Disney Lucas-film Ltd. to come and capture this captivating place in all its glory.

All offers are subject to availability.
Please contact operators directly for more details.

Since the 1930's, the Dingle Peninsula has hosted the filming of 5 major motion pictures:

Star Wars - The Last Jedi

Song of the Sea - animated film

Far & Away

Ryan's Daughter

Playboy of the Western World

To have the best experience of this magnificent landscape, the language and culture, the superb local experiences and activities, stay at least 3 days - even with 1 week on the Dingle Peninsula,

You will leave with a list of "Things Still to Explore & Experience" in this beautiful place!

Ancient Monks and Beehive Huts

- with Celtic Nature Guided Walks

For so long this jewel of the Wild Atlantic Way was the extreme western edge of the known world. The land of the setting sun and a gateway to other worlds outside of our spatial and temporal reality. This is a wildly beautiful place where history and mystery have fused to create an epic story.

Join us on a guided walk and we'll explore the stories of this special place of enchanted islands and holy mountains, ancient monks and beehive huts, of Basket literature, Gaelic language and culture. Here you will discover ancient monuments, Celtic Mythology and now Star Wars' latest home.

Come and walk this magic landscape with Celtic Nature Walking Tours. Single day guided walks or three day packages available.
